Synopsis

Introduction

Man differs from the animals because of his intellect. A disrobed man is a half a human being. Man is distinguished from animals only through his dress, cooked food, education, science and spirituality. Even as the living creatures are elevated from the fifth sense to the sixth sense an Institution is necessary like wise to elevate man from the sixth sense to a higher stage. Hence the temple act as a social institution to elevate man to God head. That is why people follow a religion and worship God.

Through out the world followers of many religions either worships the apostles of God or Religious heads. But Hindu's worship only the idols of God and lead a Godly life.

Hinduism is not a religion. It is a symbol of the growth of Human civilization. A new dimension of a sixth sense of worship of God is not due to fear, but a realization of the growth of matured intellect. The images of Gods have not been carved into indiscriminately. They have been conceptualized by our Forefathers only after a deep sense of reasoning.

Revamp of Hinduism in Tamil Nadu

Before the 7th century AD in Tamil Nadu, Jainism and Buddhism were the dominated religions. During that period the four great Saivaite Quartet restores the pristine glory of Saivism. They traveled far and wide in the Pandya kingdom extolling and singing the glory of God. There are 14 Shrines where there songs are available. These 14 Shrines in the Pandiya Kingdom are known as Pandi-14.

Amongst the 14 Shrines, Madurai, the Capital of the Pandiya Kingdom is the most ancient. But the city was ravaged due to the war of Lord Indra, the curse of Kannagi, which consumed Madurai, and the spate in the river Vaigai was brought back to life again and again but the only Shrine which maintains its ancient glory is Thiruppuvanam. It is said that Goddess Parvati, to expiate from her sin, sat under the Parijatha Tree for Penance.

Thiruppuvanam is situated nearby the Holy Madurai City. It is in the Madurai-Rameswaram National Highway and 18 k.m. away from Madurai. As like Madurai, this city is also situated in the southern bank of river Vaigai.

Thiruppuvanam in Puranas

Indian Puranas are classified into 18. Among them, one purana is named as Prema Kaivartha Puranam. In it, in twenty episodes, the glories of the Thiruppuvanam are narrated. And it was translated in the Tamil Language and named as "Thiruppuvanap Puranam" by Kandasamy Pulavar. It consists of 1437 poems in 20 chapeters. In the earlier years, these poems were written in Palmb leafs. Later this was printed in papers during March 1896 (more than 100 years ago) in the Hindu Theological Printing Press at Chennai. The book contained 246 pages in demy size.

More over the glories of Thiruppuvanam are narrated in 3 episodes in Thiruvillaiyadar Puranam of Paranjothi Munivar.

History of the Siva Linga

The Goddess Parvati had intended to visit the Yaga done by his father for which no invitation was given to her Husband Parameshwara. SHE was banned to attend the Yaga. But SHE argued and quarreled with Her Husband and moved to yaga. This type of known mistakes (argument and quarreling with husband) became as sin on Her. SHE worshiped the Lord Siva to remove the sin at Thriuappuvanam. There a Siva Lingam emerged beneath of Parijatha tree and dispelled the Sin of Parvati and for others who worhsips Him to dispel from the sins.
